1. Organising Authority. The Organising Authority is Kinsale Yacht Club.

2. Rules

2.1 Cruiser Class Racing will be governed by World Sailing Racing Rules of Sailing 2021 - 2024 ("RRS"), the prescriptions of the Irish Sailing Association ("ISA"), the IRC Rating Rule 2022, the rules of SCORA, the rules of ECHO, the Sailing Instructions ("SIs") of this race and any amendments thereto. In the event of a conflict, the Sailing Instructions shall prevail.

KINSALE YACHT CLUB

2.2 Each boat must have a minimum of three crew to qualify for entry (skipper and two others) apart from boats entered in the double handed class.

2.3 This is a mono hull Category 3 race as per the 'World Sailing Offshore Special Regulations (OSR)' and any amendments thereto for 2022 will apply. Each yacht is also required to have on-board a Category 2 life raft of sufficient size to cater for the total number of crew on-board and hold a valid in-date service certificate for the raft. Where Offshore Special Regulations cannot be met, the OA may accept an alternative. Please note amendments to the regulations that are effective from 1st January 2022 (for example rules 3.02.2, 3.02.3 and 3.02.4 which relate to the requirement for an out of the water structural inspection).

3. Eligibility

3.1 To be eligible to enter Kinsale Yacht Club ("KYC" or the "Club") Inishtearaght Race 2022, the owner and/or helm must be a member of a Yacht Club and the ISA. This amends RRS Appendix 2. All competitors shall be temporary members of Kinsale Yacht Club for the duration of the race.

3.3 All yachts shall complete the Registration Form and hand it in to the Race Office ashore prior to competing in this race. The Registration Form will be available in Kinsale Yacht Club prior to racing.

3.4 The Inishtearaght Race is an All In IRC and ECHO race – no class divisions apply. For the ECHO division standard ECHO handicaps shall apply.

3.5 Briefing for skippers of all competing boats will take place in KYC @ 20:00 hrs on Thursday 19th May 2022.

3.6 A safety inspection may take place of all competing boats at the marina or before the start at the discretion of the safety inspection officer. Competitors are asked to present their boats for inspection not later than 18:00 hrs on Thursday 19th May 2022.

3.7 The race is open to seaworthy boats which comply with the Rules and Regulations described in this Notice of Race and which are manned by an adequate number of experienced crew who are physically fit to face bad weather and which: -

- i) are of monohull construction with a minimum length overall of 30ft;
- ii) have a valid 2022 IRC Rating certificate issued no later than 1700hrs on Wednesday 18th May 2022;
- iii) have a minimum SSS Numeral of 15 or STIX of 23;
- iv) comply with the requirements of the World Sailing Offshore Special Regulations (OSR) 2022 for races of OSR Category 3 Monohulls with a Category 2 life raft and AIS Transponder

3.8 Number of crew and Weight

IRC Rule 22.4 is amended to read "There are no limits on the number of crew and crew weight. This is subject to the number of crew being limited to the maximum capacity of the liferaft(s) carried on the boat.

3.9 Automatic Steering – Double Handed.

Automatic or wind-vane steering is permitted (changes RRS 52) in the Double Handed Class. Entries must satisfy the OA that they have suitable and adequate experience and that their boat is appropriately organised for two-handed sailing.

KINSALE YACHT CLUB

3.10 Rating Deadline

Entrants shall submit a copy of the boat's 2022 IRC certificate at registration. Changes to Ratings certificates will only be accepted after the Rating Deadline (1800hrs on Thursday 19th May 2022) in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the OA.

3.11 OSR Compliance.

Responsibility for compliance rests with the Person in Charge, however Kinsale Yacht Club will endeavour to help Competitors to understand the OSR and reserves the right to conduct an OSR inspection on any boat at any time. The entrant shall complete an OSR Category 3 Checklist (available on <http://www.rorc.org/downloads/2021-racing/rorc-osr-checklist-2021.pdf>) and declaration stating that the boat complies with the World Sailing Special Offshore Regulations and return to sailingsecretary@kyc.ie by Wednesday 18th May 2022.

3.12 IRPCAS.

Between local sunset and sunrise, the rules of RRS Part 2 shall cease to be applicable and shall be replaced IRPCAS (International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea). Between the times of local sunset and sunrise a boat shall take a scoring penalty as detailed in the Sailing Instructions.

3.13 Advertising

Boats may be required to display advertising chosen and supplied by the OA.

3.14 Crew List

The Person in Charge will be required to file a crew list and emergency shore contact details at registration[DP]. A boat shall not sail with a crew member whose personal details and emergency contact details are not filed at the race office.

11. Disclaimer of Liability/Risk Statement.

Competitors participate in the race entirely at their own risk. See RRS 4, Decision to Race. The organizing authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during, or after the race.

Yacht racing can be dangerous. The attention of Persons in Charge is drawn to RRS Fundamental Rule 4: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone" and to Special Regulation 1.02.1 which begins: "The safety of a yacht and her crew is the sole and inescapable responsibility of the Person in Charge...."

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the race, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- a) they are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
- b) they are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
- c) they accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omission;
- d) their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
- e) the provision of a race management team and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities.
- f) they are responsible for ensuring that their boat is equipped and seaworthy so as to face extremes of weather; that there is a crew sufficient in number, experience and fitness to withstand such weather; and that the safety equipment is properly maintained, stowed, in date and familiar to the crew

12. Insurance.

It is the duty of each boat owner to have his/her boat adequately insured against any risk, including civil responsibility to third parties and to ensure that such insurance remains valid for the entirety of the Inishtearaght Race..

13. COVID Statement

By taking part in the race, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that they are responsible for complying with any regulations in force from time to time in respect of COVID-19 and for complying with the Kinsale Yacht Club COVID-19 procedures. Competitors and support persons shall comply with any reasonable request from an event official. Failure to comply may be misconduct. Reasonable actions by event officials to implement COVID-19 guidance, protocols or legislation, even if they later prove to have been unnecessary, are not improper actions or omissions.
